let's fake it, I don't know what I'm going to write now but One ~~think~~ thing I know clearly is that, I'm enjoying as well as scared at each second. Ignore my grammar because I'm writing useless thing here just random thoughts; So, I literally enjoyed the afternoon music session; after years or after ages, literally I was having a feeling like I'm in another world just me, my music and peace. Wait a second let me improve my writing a bit better here because it's going to be historical as a student I'm doing unethical things but as an engineer; "It's everything fair in love & war Bunk and Cheat". I Don't know what to write next. Just seeing omkar staring on the screen while Anuja head is not visible & Udita is not anywhere on the screen. Seeing on the clock it's 4:15 pm; Now I'm a professional fucking ghost writer. While Lydia Maam is also writing something I don't know what but useless hi hoga like lecture. There you go, Now I see Udita on the screen putting ~~her~~ her hand on her head; I think might be stress about something. I wonder whether my this masterpiece will get an ^{or} award for something. MCQ's mai sabko 10 milega, subjective sabko resource mil hi gaya hoga. So, sabko 20+. Thinking about what to write next; I know I'm not a better content creator than Ayya but guess what (I'm a better content creator than him XD). So let's go, take a one more shot look on the screen. I'm seeing Ayya half face looking like spanish gangster, "Are you lost Baby girl" - from 365 Days. Udita ke halo ka ghumla dikh raha; Whatapp pe msg aaye ja rahe hai let's check it out with you guys watch on the screen & I don't know what the fuck I'm writing cause my mind is at 3-3 place like a distributed database. I'm doing so many stupid things like taking my phone secretly away from the camera then taking it back again... blah blah aise likhte ja raha jaise marm ko lag raha hoga samhit ne bahot per ki hai

So, It's now 4:20 already abhi 10 minute chutiya kya karu; 2 baar pari already pee liya. Ab to par pe bhi cramp aagaya hai per hila raha hu to maa'm ko bhi dikh raha. I think she surely gonna shag on me. Now I closed my whatapp in a hope that sabko kya likhna pata hoga. Maa'm bhi aisa tag raha munko dekh rahi hogi but god knows

Now I'm going to install instageram & also today I marked 50 Days of ~~journey~~ journey & finally time is up & now I can act normal.

Peace ☺ ♡
